I just spoke with Rusty, who is not in the office today, and he said, to the best of his memory he did not work on a Comm Strategy during his time detailed to OPA. So he does not think he has a copy.

Right. Should have thought of Rusty – maybe he's more current?

I don't have the most recent. The only one I would have would be in Lotus Notes files from before I went on maternity leave in August 2012. I can try to pull that one up, if needed.

Liz and Margot – Can one of you please forward Kathy, Angeles and me the most recent update to the Rosemont ComStrat? I can't seem to find it.

Although not the intended focus of today's 1:30 briefing for Jared, we may get some direction from him on updating it. That would be ideal, but either way I think we should all plan to meet soon to update it. We're briefing him today to prep for a field visit with the Corps on 1/29, that we know the press is aware of.

Thanks - Jason
